

SEATTLE'S ONLY EATING TOUR ON WHEELS.

White Moustache Urban Adventure Co. was founded on the idea that life is better spent when eating with others. Like Epicurus, we too believe friendship tastes better, especially when eating. We are ever on the hunt to find someone to eat with before we even decide what to eat. After all, it's not just about the food. The most famous meals in history were never solo endeavors. Think Jesus AND the twelve disciples enjoying the Last Supper. Who can forget the Corleone family and their shared love of veal and cannolis? We don't believe anyone should ever eat alone. And we built a business on it.

WALLINGFORD EDITION

THE NEIGHBORHOOD SCOOP

Wallingford is one of Seattle's most northern neighborhoods. Located just north of Lake Union, it is bordered on the east by I-5, Hwy 99 to the west, and Green Lake to the north. While the majority of business takes place on 45th Street, there are several pockets of unique businesses to be found through out, including the area known as Tangletown.

NEIGHBORHOOD TRIVIA DID YOU KNOW?

- Namesake of John and Amanda Wallingford.
- Much of Wallingford development was a result of the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition in 1909 .
- The famous neon "WALLINGFORD" sign was recycled from "FOOD GIANT".
